PETERSBURG & WELDON RAILROAD BRIDGE BURNED.

Kentucky Revenue Defaulter---An Alabama Cotton Factory Destroyed.

Railroad Bridge Burned.

Special Dispatch to the News.

WELDON, Feb. 10.—The Petersburg & Weldon railroad bridge over the Meherring river, at Bellfield, was burned at 11 o'clock last night.

PETERSBURG, Va., Feb 10.—The railroad bridge over the Meherrin river at Hickford, on the Petersburg & Weldon railroad, was destroyed by an incendiary fire last night, together with the county bridge at the same point. The railroad bridge was two hundred feet long and cost $8,000. The passengers by the midnight train from the North remained here last night. A large force of workmen has gone to erect a temporary bridge.

Another Defaulter.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Feb. 10.—Investigation into the accounts of the Internal Revenue officer of the Third District disclosed the fact that the cashier, Captain Ashley Brown, was a defaulter to the amount of, as far as can be ascertained, ten thousand dollars. Brown finding he was discovered, made his escape with $2900 of funds of the office. No trace of him has yet been discovered.

A Cotton Factory Destroyed.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., February 10.—The Lehman cotton factory, near Brattville, fifteen miles from this city, was destroyed by fire this morning. The factory had been recently run day and night. The flames were discovered about 4 o'clock it. the main building, which was entirely destroyed with all the machinery. The loss is supposed to be about one hundred thousand dollars and the insurance about seventy-five thousand dollars. The fire is thought to have been caused by friction. About 150 hands are thrown out of employment. The property was owned by Messrs. Lehman, Burr & Company.

Too Hundred Soldiers Killed.

LONDON, Feb. 10.—A Constantinople dispatch reports during the fete the barrack three stories high near that city collapsed, two hundred soldiers killed and three hundred wounded.

Want to Quit.

NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—The Mercantile Mutual Insurance Company, with a capital of $250,000, has applied to the Supreme Court for permission to wind up business.

Foreign Flashes.

LONDON, Feb. 10.—The Times has reason to believe that directions have been sent to the British minister at Teheran to inform the Persian government that Her Majesty's government releases Persia from the treaty engagement of 1857, by which Persia bound herself not to take possession of Herat. This is tantamount to an invitation to Persia to do the thing she is thus expressly permitted to do.

The Times says: We seem in fact to have handed Herat over to Persia with a view to uniting the interests of Persia and India in opposition to Russia.

The Sportsman announces that Christopher Barrass has authorized the editor of that journal to retain £50 of the stakes in the Boyd-Elliott match, and issue a challenge to Hanlan in behalf of Boyd, to row a race within a stipulated time, for £200 a side for the championship of England and the sportman's challenge trophy.

Boyd will row a race with Hanlan on Tyne next Saturdry.

Nominations.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—The President sent the following nominations of postmasters to the Senate to-day: Joshua R. Smith, at Meridian, Miss.; Jas. W. Lee, at Aberdeen, Miss.; Charles Miller, at Morgan City, Louisiana.

Fire in San Jose.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 10.—The State Normal building at San Jose, was burned to the ground early this morning. The fire was first discovered in the cupalo. There is a suspicion that the fire was of incendiary origin. The loss is estimated at more than $250,000; insurance $50,000.

The Parnell Fund and its Treasurers.

New York Herald.

Messrs. Drexel, Morgan & Co., bankers, of New York, have given public notice that they cannot any longer act as treasurers of the found for the relief of Ireland which is being raised through the instumentality of Parnell, Contributions, therefore, which the subscribers desire to forward to Ireland through that channel will not hereafter be received by them. It is understood that this decision on the part of Messrs. Drexel, Morgan & Co., has been brought about by the number of letters and inquires, comments and criticisms they have received in relation to the use Mr. Parnell proposes to make of the money.

Rather Peculiar.

Wilmington Review.

We learn, from Washington, that Governor Jarvis who has been in the city for some days, has determined to call an extra session of the Legislature, to convene on the 10th of March next. The object in thus calling the Legislature together is to consider certain propositions made to the State relative to the purchase of her interest in the Western North Carolina Railroad.

We are not positive that Governor Jarvis has thus expressed himself in Washington. The Gazette may have been in error in the matter, or may have been led to make an unauthorized statement in the spirit of newspaper enterprise. At any rate, it is rather singular that the first intimation we have of the matter should come from Washington City, instead of from Raleigh.

A Foreign Minister's Rights.

Senor Don Jose Carlos Tracy, Peruvian minister to this country, is a member of the firm of Hernandez & Tracy, New York. The firm was sued upon a protested bill of exchange on which the firm name was indorsed. Senor Tracy asked that the case be dismissed on the ground that the court had no jurisdiction, he being minister to Peru. The General Term has decided in his favor, holding that a minister of a foreign court cannot even voluntarily submit himself to the jurisdiction of a State court, as the United States statutes exempt him from suit in such a tribunal. This exemption is not in the nature of a privilege to the foreign minister, but is declared as a right and privilege of the United States as against the State.

The District Delegates to the Chicago Convention.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—After a stormy session of two days the Republican convention of this District adjourned this afternoon after selecting as delegates to the Republican National Convention at Chicago, John F. Cook and Sayles J. Bowen. No instructions were given them by the convention, but the former is known to be strongly in favor of General Grant, while Bowen's first choice is Senator Blaine.

A Horse Swindle.

Baltimore Sun.

A gang of sharpers in Philadelphia have, for more than a year, been swindling visitors from the country in a novel way. They have a stable, ostensibly for the purchase and sale of horses. When a countryman enters to look at the stock, a practically valueless horse is offered him for $150. A bystander offers $200, but the dealer angrily says he will not sell to this man at any price, having had a previous quarrel with him. The bystander draws the countryman aside, and says, "Buy the horse at $150, and I'll take him off your hands at $200." This seems to offer a chance to make $50 without risk, but the victim, after paying $150 for the beast, does not see any more of the promised purchaser with the $200.

Supreme Court Decisions.

[Digested for the NEWS by Walton M. Busbee, Esq.]

SMITH, C. J.:

Burton vs. Conigland, } Halifax.

Affirmed.

Where land is devised to B with an intermediate estate to C until B attains his majority, and in case B dies leaving no children then to D.

It was held, that the contingency of B's dying without issue must occur during the continuance of the intermediate estate. If B attains the age of 21 he takes the lands devised in fee simple.

State vs. Crockett, } Wake.

Affirmed.

The declarations of a third person in the hearing of the defendant which are not contradicted are admissible in evidence against him.

An objection because of variance between the allegation of the bill and the evidence must be taken advantage of in the Court below and not in this Court.

Repugnancy between the proof and a needless averment not descriptive of a constituent of the offense charged, but of immaterial matter will not be allowed to defeat the verdict.

Grant vs. Reese, } Northampton.

Error. Judgement reversed.

Where a case is referred under the Code or by consent, the finding of the referee is final as to the facts and neither party has a right to demand a jury trial on issues raised by exception.

Hawley vs. The Commissioners of Fayetteville. } Cumberland.

No error. Affirmed.

The act of March 22, 1875, requires claims already due, to be presented before the first day of January, 1877. An action instituted on the 10th of May, 1876, is entirely outside of the penal operation of the statute.

When a creditor of a municipal corporation demands payment of what is due and is refused, the writ of mandamus is his appropriate and only remedy.

The Finance Committee are not necessarily parties, the power to levy tax being in the defendants.

ASHE, J.:

Taylor vs. Conigland, } New Hanover.

No error. Affirmed.

The acts of 1870-'71, and not the Code of Civil Procedure, govern in computing the time required for a summons to issue before the beginning of a Term of the Superior Court. The habit of serving writs on Friday, the tenth day before the court to which they are returnable, has long been the practice and the fact that no appeal has heretofore been brought is proof of the concurrence of the profession in such construction.

State vs. Jones. } Edgecombe.

Judgment affirmed.

The same facts were decided upon at present term in State vs. Benthal, heretofore reported.

Latham vs. Dixon. } Craven.

Judgment affirmed.

Where a motion was made before a clerk of the Superior Court for leave to issue execution after a lapse of three years.

Held, that the judgment creditor is competent to prove that the judgment has not been paid even where the judgment debtor has died after the rendition of the judgment and before the motion made.

Boggs vs. Davis. } Onslow.

Judgment affirmed.

No power is granted to a Justice of the Peace by virtue of the act of 1874-'75, chapter 33, to amerce a sheriff of a county different from that in which he hold his court.

DILLARD, J.

Halse Gilm vs. Cole. } Duplin.

Judgment affirmed.

A sheriffs deed upon an execution sued out for sums charged on the share assigned to one of the parties to a proceeding for partition, passes no title.

The sums so charged are a lien on the lands and not on the person and can be collected by vendetioni exponas on the decree of the court which made the partition.

State vs. Troy. } New Hanover.

Judgment reversed.

Bills of indictment for acts made criminal by statute, but which were not criminal at common law, must conclude contra formam statuti. In such case it is error to pronounce judgment.

State vs. Garrell. } New Hanover.

Judgment reversed.

Judgments erroneous in law merely, are binding until reversed, and such judgments are reversible by appeal or certiorari. Every ministerial officer must obey all writs issued from courts having cognizance of the subject matter and of the person, and is punishable for failure to do so, even when the order is erroneous and reversible on appeal.

State vs. Bass. } Halifax.

Judgment affirmed.

A jury sworn and charged in a case of felony punishable by imprisonment in the State's prison or common jail, may be discharged in the discretion of the Judge for reasons satisfactory to him, not reversible in the Supreme Court.

CONGRESSIONAL CHAT.

DAILY PROCEEDINGS OF THE SENATE AND HOUSE.

Inter-Oceanic Canal Committee—Appropriation to Complete the New Orleans Custom House, Etc.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Feb 9.—The Vice-President laid before the Senate a memorial of the mayor and common council of Milwaukie, for a repeal of the compulsory legal tender power of the United States notes. Referred.

Conkling presented a memorial of the New York Chamber of Commerce, asking an increased appropriation for the fortifications of the New York harbor. Referred to the committee on Military Affairs.

Senator Allison, of the above committee, remarked that the committee had inserted an increased appropriation for that purpose in a House bill now before the Senate.

Senator Conkling presented a memorial of the Ithica Farmers' Club, of Ithica, N. Y., favoring the passage of the Reagan Inter-State Commerce bills. Also the petition of a large number of the citizens of Buffalo, N. Y., for the same.

Senator Eaton, from the Committee on Foreign Relations, reported favorably on the House joint resolution appropriating $20,000 to enable the United States to be represented at the International Fishery Exhibition at Berlin, and it was passed.

Senator Burnside introduced a bill which, by unanimous consent, was considered and passed, appropriating $1,000 to defray the expenses of transporting the body of Maj. Gen. George Sykes, late of the United States army, from Fort Brown, Texas, to West Point.

Senator Jones, of Louisiana, introduced a bill making an appropriation of $85,500 to aid in the completion of the Custom House at New Orleans, referred.

On motion of Senator Gordon the Senate proceeded to consider the motion entered some days ago by Senator Davis, of West Virginia, to reconsider its action in passing Senator Gordon's bill for the appointment of an inter-oceanic canal committee. Mr Gordon explained the object of his bill, and said he thought we ought to give some assurance to the distinguished citizens of Nicaragua now here, to the capitalists whom he represented, as well as to the Nicaraguan government, which felt such deep interest in the subject that the United States would not, he hoped, be backward in protecting any enterprise which might be undertaken on that Isthmus.

He considered it absurd to refuse to appoint a special committee upon the greatest enterprise of modern times, merely in order to save the salary of a clerk.

Pending the conclusion of Senator Gordon's remarks, the morning hour expired.

He continued to speak, however, until Senator Edmunds rose to the privilege of a motion under the 64th rule and asked that the doors be closed.

Senator McDonald demanded regular order.

The Vice-President declared the business before the Senate to be Senator Paddock's bill, to authorize the Secretary of the Interior to ascertain and certify the amounts of land located with military warrants, in certain states and to direct the Secretary of the Treasury to pay said states 5 per cent. on such amounts, estimated at $1.25 per acre. Among the states mentioned in the bill are Louisiana, Alabama, Mississippi and Florida.

Senator Edmunds spoke at considerable length in opposition to the bill.

Senator James, of Florida, gave notice that he would offer the following amendment to be inserted after the first section provided that the Secretary of the Interior shall also ascertain the quantity of public lands, entered and patented under the provision of the homestead law in the states of Florida, Mississippi, Alabama, Arkansas and Louisiana, between June 21st, 1866, and March 3d, 1877, and that such lands shall also be subject to the provisions of this act in the same manner as the lands were entered by military scrip and land warrants.

Senator Burnside, from the committee on military affairs, submitted to the minority report on the bill for the relief of General Fitzjohn Porter. Adjourned.

HOUSE.

Mr. F. Wood, of New York, chairman of the committee on Ways and Means reported a resolution calling on the Secretary of the Treasury for all the evidence on file in the Internal Revenue office touching the enforcement of the Internal Revenue laws in northeast Georgia. Adopted.

Mr. Conger, of Michigan, from the same committee, reported back a bill for the relief of colored emigrants. Passed. (It provides that all charitable contributions imported for the relief of colored persons who have emigrated from their homes to other States, shall be admitted free of duty. This act to take effect immediately, and to remain in force until February 1, 1881.)

The House then resumed consideration of the bill to settle the titles to lands in Hot Springs, Ark.

Messrs. Chalmers of Mississippi, Hawley of Connecticut, White of Pennsylvania, Donnell of Minnesota, and Conger of Michigan spoke in opposition to the bill, on the ground that it was a bill for the relief of claimants who had been living on the Government, and who now wanted to get for twenty thousand dollars property worth four hundred thousand dollars.

Messrs. Converse of Ohio, Dunn of Arkansas, and Wright of Pennsylvania, spoke in favor of the bill, after which the previous question was seconded and the bill passed by 125 to 121.

Mr. Johnston of Virginia, introduced a bill amending section 3585, Revised Statutes, relative to the cancellation of export bonds on tobacco, snuff and cigars. Referred.

Mr. Beltzhoover of Pennsylvania introduced a bill to remove the political disabilities arising under the third section of the fourteenth amendment to the Constitution. Referred.

Adjourned.

Young Men in the House.

Washington Correspondence Springfield Republican.

The present house contains an unusually large number of youngsters. The palm in this direction is carried off by Richard G. Frost, of St. Louis, who only completed his twenty-eighth year last month, and who first ran for Congress in 1876, failing of an election then, when he was under twenty-five. Taylor, of the first Tennessee district, the young lawyer who has the reputation of having fiddled his way into the house, carrying a Republican district by sheer force of his popularity among the mountaineers of East Tennesse, will not be thirty until next July, and Acklen, of Louisiana, is only a couple of months his senior, while Speer, of Georgia, is but little over thirty-one. Frost is a very boyish looking fellow in the light business suit which he usually wears, and it would not be at all strange if he is sometimes mistaken for one of the pages by a colleague, as he not infrequently is by spectators. Speer looks so young that nobody who should see him outside his seat would suppose he was a member of Congress. Indeed, a little incident which occurred in a horse-car going up Capitol hill this morning shows that not all his fellow-members yet know him as a lawmaker. A scholarly representative from Ohio, of nearly twice his years, fell into conversation with him, but they had not talked long before the westerner, apparently suspecting that he was being interviewed, "unbeknownst," remarked inquiringly: "You're a journalist, aren't you, sir?" His surprise may be imagined when the young man replied: 'No sir; I am a member of the house from Georgia."

THE INTEROCEANIC CANAL.

The House Committee Calling for Information.

The Select Committee of the House on the Interoceanic Ship Canal has laid the foundation for a critical examination of the subject. A resolution was adopted calling on the President for all the correspondence between the Government and foreign countries relative to a ship canal; also a resolution providing for the collection of all possible statistics and data showing the present amount of commerce passing around Cape Horn with a view of ascertaining approximately how valuable to the commercial interests of this country an interoceanic canal would be. Admiral Ammen appeared before the Committee and furnished a printed copy of his official report on the Nicaragua route. He will come before the committee again and give his views upon the general subject more in detail.

Rapid Extinction of Buffalo.

Montana Herald.

Comparatively few buffalo have ranged the past summer north of the international boundary. Forts Walsh and Macleod have for some years past been important centres for the collection of buffalo robes, the market value of which to the Indian hunter may be estimated at $2 each. In 1877 some 30,000 robes were gathered at Fort Macleod and a large number at Fort Walsh. In 1878 the number was 12,797 at the former and 16,897 at the latter place, while this year only 5764 have come in at Fort Macleod and 8277 at Fort Walsh. This steady decrease in the number of buffalo slain by the Indians and half-breeds of the Northwest affords a ready explanation of the suffering prevalent among them.

The Swift Creek Farmer Again.

SWIFT CREEK, Feb. 10.—Your correspondent had the pleasure of knowing of the intention of the surviving members of the (old Fourth) Fourteenth, belonging to companies "E" and "K," to give a serenade to Judge Gudger of the Superior Court bench. We made a mistake; it was Jim Gudger, of (captain) company "F," who they were looking for. But they turned out in full force, and we are told they said "one of the name is all the same."

I am asking a simple question. Have we any poor whites and colored at home? The very men that are making the appeal for their suffering countrymen need the help at home. What is the need of saying the amount you give will be published in the Raleigh NEWS or the New York Herald? But I would like to appeal to you, as a Scotchman, (who are never impoverished) to help the Irish, and I enclose five dollars to help them all to emigrate to America.

Your correspondent does wish that you would not impose such matter-of-fact business as crops or politics, and just let him poise a little piece of poetry on your capable columns, from which he might gain renown (like Bret Hart or Brig. Gen. Heartt). Ah, wouldn't it be a pleasure to know how we gain our spars in England!

Coming home with a wishful willingness your correspondent anticipates good seasons and good crops, from his own observations, and says d—— the prognosticators.

My latitude and longitude of characters and their figures I shall have to be short. Old Captain John McCullers, good old soul, surrounded by a progeniy of forty-three, still plays the "Arkansaw Sawyer," and who don't appreciate such a tune when you see a neighborhood of over three hundred of Adams, Banks, Williams, Smiths, and the Stephensons, all listening. The country is a pleasanter home after all, with such surroundings.

Your correspondent has always a hesitancy in dealing in personalities, but would like to know how it is that he sees all fat lawyers and doctors and so many cussed slim farmers, when they have to make everything on which them chaps get portly? You see a mechanic is a kind of man who don't mind exalting himself (in his mind) on a five-story scantling (while he is there) and failing off when his props fail. Such clever fellows.

Did you know pigeons flew due east when there was an indication of stormy weather? That comes of saying "Geese of another feather don't flock together." A farmer is not a mechanic, and a mechanic is not a farmer; if so, he is a "Jack of all trades," and I'd just as soon to have one of New Jersey's tramps as to see him. Let the lawyers consider that they have the brains and the farmer won't never be a statesman.

Driven From Home by Scandal.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 6.—A dispatch from Middletown, Ohio, says: "W. S. Marshall, cashier of the First National Bank of Middletown, left his home last night under peculiar circumstances. Some time since a scandal was circulated, coupling his name with that of a Miss Langdon. The story was thought to have been entirely refuted. Marshall, however, claims in letters left explaining his departure that he has been recently annoyed by letters threatening a revival of the scandal, and being of a sensitive nature, this preyed upon him so much that he thought everybody was suspicious of him, even to his superiors in the bank. At last he could stand it no longer, and having conveyed his home to his wife and left her $1,500, he departed to find some place where the tongue of the scandal-mongers cannot reach him. His accounts with the bank are said to be all straight. Some of his acquaintances think Marshall has gone to Worcester, Mass., where he has friends."

Can Grant be Elected?

Utica Herald, (Rep.)

Harrisburg completely disposes of the claim that the politicians have the people solidly at their back in this matter. It demonstrates their power perhaps, unless the people are paralyzed by the Harrisburg proceedings to take the bit in teeth, to force the nomination of the ex-President at Chicago; but it raises for the first time in a shape where it must be met and discussed—the question of availability. Nobody, of course, cares to see the ex-President nominated, if the nomination is to be followed by a defeat at the polls. No argument is good for his nomination which is not founded on the theory that he is the strongest candidate who can be found.

THE IRISH WOMEN.

THEIR FIERCE WAR-FARE ON THE PROCESS-SERVER.

An Exciting Scene Between The Amazonians and the Police Force.

Correspondence of the Irish World.

THE PEOPLE UNTERRIFIED.

The Irish tenants in the interior show a heroic courage in the Anti-Rent War. Though Davitt is supposed to be on his trial in the Queen's Bench, he was yesterday, Jan. 18, the leading speaker at Williamston, County, Galway. Mr. Davitt said they had received very encouraging and very hopeful news from Mr. Parnell in America. He wished to say that they did not seek a physical revolution. What they wanted was to bring about a contest between Land Monopoly and an intelligent industrial combination. Resolutions of the usual character were adopted. At a meeting of the Irish National Land League on Saturday, Mr. D. Sullivan handed in a check for £400, received by him from San Francisco. Five thousand pounds was received by the Lord Mayor of Dublin from the Irish in Melbourne, and two thousand pounds from the people in Sidney. Total received by the Lord Mayor's Committee, £13,000; total by the Duchess of Marlborough, £20,000. San Francisco sent £400 to Parnell's Land League.

THE EJECTMENT WARS.

The process-servers bringing around ejectment papers are very roughly used by the Irish women. One fellow was seized, stripped naked, every paper he had about him torn into bits. Every stitch of clothes on him were torn into ribbands, and he was left to go in nudicus to the next police station two miles off. Another process-server was hung up by the heels from a tree, and every paper in his possession shook out and torn. The police were manfully resisted by whole regiments of women at sundry places in Ireland last week. The most determined resolution is fixed in the breasts of men and women to hold the grips of their lands in all these contests and combats. The police used their bayonets against the defenseless women, prodding them in arms, breasts, cheeks, legs, drawing their blood, but the police got it back in full tale in showers of heavy stones, mud and filth. The latest battle, and the latest triumph of the Irish Amazonians, is told us by the Freeman's commissioner, who was an eye-witness.

PROCESS-SERVERS IN THE WEST.

Great excitement prevails about Ballindine, where a process server named Daniel O'Donnell, accompanied by 25 police under the command of Mr. Carter, Sub-Inspector Constabulary, Claremorris, attempted to serve processes on the tenants at Kalvine, a small village 13 miles distant from Balla. O'Donnell was going to serve on a man named Kenans, but around the door were a hundred or so women, who said, "We will never leave it." All this time the pelting of mud, turf, and filth went on, till "Dan" and the Royal Irish were literally covered over with it from head to foot. The police proceeded to drag the women from the door. They resisted, and the other portion of the crowd commenced pelting stones, several of which hit many of the women as well as the police. The Sub-Inspector was also hit. Several voices cried—"Take the processes and tear them!" Another voice, "We don't want to do anything to the police; it's Daneen we want!" The Sub-Inspector—"Keep back, or I'll ——" A voice—"Do strike if you dare!" All through the firing of sods of turf and some stones continued.

Eventually "Dan" succeeded in effecting the service. In clearing the door of the women several of them got knocked down. The police then moved to the next house, but before reaching it successful efforts were again made to lay hold of "Dan," and the stone-throwing increased. At one time it became so heavy that the Sub-Inspector ordered his men to fall back and fix bayonets. Several voices said they had nothing against the police. An old woman said, "If I hang I won't let him in." All this time there was no cessation to the stone-throwing. Several of the Constabulary were hit on the head and face, whilst their tunics were in many places cut through. Several voices, "We won't touch you, but don't touch the poor widow's house." The Sub-Inspector here ordered his men to load. The Constabulary stood ready to charge, having their fingers on the trigger. Sub-Inspector—"Keep away, now."

A voice—"I have but one life to lose, and I will lose it now."

The speaker rushed from amongst the men, and throwing off his coat, said, addressing the Sub-inspector:—"Come on now even with your sword, and I'll fight you. Before God and man I declare I have neither in meat nor malt as much as would make my dinner to-day, and what am I to do at al. ?"

Several voices—"Murder Daneen."

Sub-inspector—"I have the rifles of my men loaded, and I'll certainly fire."

The intensity of the stone-throwing, now somewhat abated, and an effort was again made to reach the door. After much difficulty half the policemen formed a semi-circle, with bayonets pointed, keeping back the surging mass of human beings, whilst the other half dragged the women away. Amongst the number of documents O'Donnell had the required one was nowhere to be found. Beside him, on a wall, stood three or four women. They leaped down, and one carried away the greater part of the processes. Ascending a rick of turf, she exhibited the fragments to the gaze of all amidst the wildest excitement.

THE STONE-THROWING AGAIN INCREASED

and to such an extent as to force the police to retire to the other side of the house. From the force of the blows they received many of them were stunned. The people became more desperate, and the police stood in line ready to charge. A voice—"Bring home the police now; we don't want to hurt you, but get Daneen." O'Donnell, flourishing a heavy stick he carried all through, said, "I was never afraid in my life, and I am not now." The Sub-inspector—"If any of the men are struck again I will certainly fire. If you resist those processes being served I will bring here a force of a thousand men if necessary." Several voices—"And we will be here in our thousands too." The Sub-inspector—"All I can say is that if there are any more stones thrown I will certainly fire." Some persons here used their influence with the people and induced them to stop the stone-throwing. The police made use of the truce writing down the names of the persons whom they alleged threw stones. Subsequently more stone-throwing took place, and the police set out for home, followed by the people. In the evening the services of a piper were secured, and the women got up a dance before O'Donnell's house.

STATE NEWS.

FORSYTHE.

WINSTON, Feb. 9.—The weather is now fair and pleasant this morning, a heavy snow storm struck us growing more furious till late at night giving us a first-class snow, much to the gratification of the farmers as the fly was destroying the wheat. This will doubtless check the fly and do much good to the wheat crop.

The ice on some ponds was an inch and a half thick and was housed by many of our Salem friends, fearing to wait and take the chances in the future. Sleighing was fine for a while Tuesday, and the merry gingle of the bells was heard in all directions.

There were but few accidents, so far as we could learn. A little daughter of Mr. J. A. Betting, we regret to say, fell while playing and broke a limb. She is doing well.

The funeral of a Miss Fisher, of Salem, takes place at the M. E. church in Winston. She died, we are informed, of consumption.

A negro named Michael Cobb broke, or rather stole from an open window, three boxes of tobacco from Mr. Grayan's tobacco factory last Tuesday, for which he was arrested, tried, convicted and jailed.

Page Hamlen, previously arrested for barn burning, was finally committed to jail.

The Inferior Court opens next week, before which several important cases are to be tried.

The storehouse recently destroyed by fire, will soon be ready for use.

The new and popular hardware store of Brown & Vaughn has united with the wide-awake and largely-patronized firm of Praylher & Co., and assuming the name of the latter, have established their headquarters in two of the new stores under the new town hall.

Our lively man of the saw and knife, Mr. J. C. Fagg, has established himself in his new quarters on Liberty street, where he sells beef and pork with a vim.

Rev. C. H Wiley and lady gave a reception party last Thursday night to Mr. J. W. Durham and bride, recently married in your city. Mr. D. is worthy of, and doubtless won, one of Raleigh's fairest daughters.

ORANGE.

CHAPEL HILL, Feb. 9.—Mrs. Davis, one of the oldest inhabitants of our town, died yesterday morning. She was quite old—some 88 years, and she has been for 72 years a member of the Methodist church. She leaves a large number of children and grand-children to mourn her loss. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. A. W. Mangum. The deceased might be considered almost the founder of Methodism in Chapel Hill.

They are pushing along the University Railroad. Some of the convicts have already come up to go to work, and others will follow as fast as accommodations can be provided for them. General Hoke is earnest about the work, and is pushing it forward with energy. The citizens of Chapel Hill are delighted at the near prospect of a railroad. Yours, &c.,

GUILFORD.

GREENSBORO, Feb. 9.—The weather is fine after the big snow and ice of last week. Most of our ice men gathered about half houses of ice, one and a half to two and a half inches thick, and they are happy just to that extent.

Trade has been impeded by the snow and the market was not so well supplied.

Miss Nancy Clark an old maid fortune-teller of about 70 summers who lived alone in this city, was found one day last week lying near or in the fire, her face being much burnt, she lingered till Friday and died, after a long and lonely life. I hear she left all her worldly effect (house and lot with some money,) to a youth of our city by will. She having no near kin "so far" as known in this country.

And now I must tell you a bill "cow" story and yet a true one.

A citizen of this "burg" (Dr. D. A. Roberson,) bought twenty months ago a Jersey cow for which he planked down $75 cash, a big price, seemingly. Well, she had two calves in twenty months for which he got $15 and $25 each, with which, after selling two gallons of milk per day at 15 cents (a low estimate) he counts himself in by her $320, or $245 clear profit, and we have said nothing about the butter only that he had to buy but two pounds during this twenty months for his family. I should have said he had just sold the cow for one hundred dollars cash and shipped her to Atlanta, Ga. See what good stock will do. This cow would not eat more than one giving a gallon a day.

Greensboro Female College has opened with an increased number of scholars.

The little ones here and there are having chicken pox, always something for the children to have.

W. C. Petty & Co., are now in their new factory here hard at work, filling orders, and making things lively in the sash, door and blind business.

Rev. W. B Redball, filled Dr. Smith's pulpit yesterday. In the morning he took the lesson of Balaam and at night, Eat not thyself, from both which he made things plain and with which his hearers were well pleased, two good sermons.

Odell, of Odell & Co., is now in New York, and so is Small, of Scott, Small & Co., laying in their early wholesale supples, the former in general wholesale goods, the latter in, notions, white and fancy goods and it is said are laying in big supples, so their many, many customers, all over the country can soon have a supply.

Police news, court news, city news, political news, or any or all other kinds of news, be scarce, about these parts right now.

WARREN.

WARRENTON, Feb. 9.—It commenced snowing here on the 1st inst., and continued nearly the entire day. The streets have become quite muddy from the melting of the snow and the thawing of the ground.

The trade here has been as brisk as could be expected from a village. If the tobacco enterprise, which is spoken of be inaugurated here, the business will greatly improve, for when we had the tobacco warehouses here about two years ago, it threw an impetus into the business. The soils of our county are considered to be well adapted to the growth of tobacco; then why not commence the establishment of factories at once. The farmers in this county will make for the present year largely fluecured tobacco. The high prices obtained for it in Henderson has created a sensation on the subject.

The Superior Court will commence in this county on the first Monday in next March. From the appearance of the docket now we suppose not many cases will be brought up. There are many continued cases on the docket.

A Leap Year party was given by the young ladies on Friday, the 6th inst. We have not heard of any discards or courtships. We expected to see Bulwer's Coming Race pass before our eyes in miniature, but we were disappointed.

The following attorneys were in our town last week: Messrs. Joseph Batchelor, of Raleigh; Col L. C. Edwards, of Oxford, and Messrs. Jordan & Young, of Henderson.

STOLEN STEWART.

THE MYSTERY OF STEWART'S BODY REVIVED.

Brockway "the King of Forgers." Tells a few Things About it—"Official" Letters.

N. Y. Star.

While paying a visit to the Tombs Prison, yesterday, a Star reporter stopped in Charles Brockway's cell and held a conversation with the prisoner. Brockway has a very intelligent face, a pleasing manner and gentlemanly address. He is said to be one of the smartest forgers in the country, and has been named by his companions, "The King of the Forgers." Brockway, or Broadway, as he is sometimes called, is said to be implicated in forgeries that amounted to something like $1,000,000. He was arrested about two weeks ago upon evidence given by one of his late companions, James Williams, alias "Big Kentuck," who "peached" when arrested by Detective Robert Pinkerton for forging checks on the Phœnix Bank in Wall street. A few days ago a man named Samuel Swim (now under arrest) made an affidavit setting forth that Brockway was the chief mover in a number of forgeries. In relation to this matter Brockway said:

"About six months ago I was in Chicago and got in with some people to raise a pool in grain. I realized from $20,000 to $30,000 by the operation. I was well know in New York, and as I had been in trouble there, most of people thought they could go on top of me.

"I was in a hotel in Chicago in company with William A. Pinkerton the detective, and Walter McDonald one evening when this same Swim came in and said that the police were after me, and I was wanted in New York. He told me he could fix it all right for me if I would pay him well. At that moment a man named John K. Barrett came in and pushed Swim aside, and said he would fix it all right as he knew all about the District Attorneys Office. This man drew out of his pocket a number of official letters. One letter, he said, was from Superintendent Walling, containing all about me. I asked to see it, but he refused. He took out another letter, also official, but from the District-Attorney's Office, and he said it was all right, as he was solid with District-Attorney Russell. He was also fixed with Capt. Kealy, and he assured me I need not fear, if I would give him $5,000, and that no other man could do it. Mr. Pinkerton said to Barrett that, no one but God Almighty and ex-Judge Hilton could fix Russell. "But I tell you I am all right with Hilton, too," Barret replied, and he continued: "I am the man that knew all about Stewart's body. I was the man who put the case into the hands of Lawyer Jones to transact for me. They offered me $20,000, but I wanted $100,000 and I will get it." He then told me he was the man that got Frank McCoy, the bank burglar, out of Brooklyn jail, and he told me true there, for he was the man, but how he got him out I cannot tell.

"I told him I would have nothing to do with him, as I had done nothing wrong. I lost all the money I made the day before Barrett called on me, and if I had the money I would not have given it to him. After this I heard that Swim paid Barrett's fare to and from Chicago and gave him $50. Barrett, after he left me, went to a well-known gambling house and lost $175, got drunk and was thrown out in the street. He was taken up by some companions and carried to the "House of David" and was locked up all night. He came to me before he left Chicago and asked me not to say anything about his visit to me and what had transpired between us. I told him I should publish it far and wide. I came to this city about three months ago to look after some stock I owned in the Wabash Railway, which was likely to be consolidated with the Kansas Pacific. I met Swim and Barrett in New York, and they asked me again for money. I engaged Counselor Mitchell, and Swim called upon him and read extracts from an affidavit which Mr. Mitchell recognizes as the affidavit published in a morning paper last week. This whole thing is a conspiracy against me."

A Sharp Negro.

New York Tribune.

There is at least one shrewd negro in Georgia. A gentleman, in riding through the country recently, came upon a cabin surrounded by a patch of ground, which a negro woman was plowing with a team of girls. Near by the husband and father was feeding a stout and healthy mule. Upon being asked why he did not hitch his mule to the plow instead of his daughters, he replied: "Boss, dis mule is mine; de ole 'oman is mine and de gals is mine; nobody is gwine to fetch dem away, but if de morgum on dis mule ain't raised dis fall de white man will send de sheriff and take de mule and all I'se got. So I thought I'd keep de mule fat, and let de gals and ole 'oman work, and save dis hors flesh as much as I can, fur if de wust comes I can ride off on de mule and go somewhar else to work. Dat's it, boss; de work won't hurt the gals."

Journalism on Wheels.

Hawkinsville Dispatch.

An editor in one of the north Georgia counties owns a portable printing office. The editor is a first-rate blacksmith, and occasionally changes his location, stopping in any neighborhood where the farmers are disposed to furnish him with work, and as soon as he gets his shop in good running order, he sets up his old Ben Franklin hand press, buys a gallon or two of syrup, a few pounds of glue and casts a soiler. Then he buys a dozen quires of paper, and in a few days "The Thunderbolt of Freedom" makes its appearance, claiming a large circulation, and offering "superior inducements to advertisers."

The Sherman Family.

Atlanta Constitution.

The present is an emergency in which the genial 'Liza Pinkston should be called forth from her retirement. With Boynton after General Tecumseh, and the boom of the Hon. John decaying in the too Sunny South, the entire country seems to be engaged in an effort to violently sit down upon this illustrious family.

And Yet He is Not Happy.

An event that has recently stirred up Evansville, Ind., is stated in cold type of the local papers thus: "Good Luck!!! or two Evansvillians who hit the Louisiana State Lottery Grand Capital Prize at the 116th Grand Monthly (January 13th last) Drawing, after sending one dollar to M. A. Dauphin, at New Orleans, La., and who received $15,000." As they are named Albecker and Zapp, they probably are of the German persuasion, but there is a clog to every sweet. Albecker has "hit" the same lottery a score of times, all the way from $5 to $500, and the edge of appreciation is dulled.

OUR FIGURES AND THE FRENCH BROAD LINE.

Correcting the typographical errors in our article yesterday on the French Broad Division of the Western North Carolina Railroad, which must have been apparent and the true meaning understood by every reader, 44 9-100 miles length, for 449 as printed, and six hundred thousand dollars for six thousand dollars, as the necessary cost of the 44 miles down the French Broad to Paint Rock, constructed with the aid of convict labor, and the actual cost of that labor charged to the work, we could not have been in error, unless indeed, we placed the cost of the work too high.

We say we could not have placed the cost of constructing this 44 miles of road too low, for we took the estimates of Maj. Jas. C. Turner, Chief Engineer, a very accomplished and skilled railroad man, (none ever stood higher in the circles of his profession) and we gave the figures he made after carefully surveying the line in 1869, and he again verified it in 1870. In addition thereto we have the testimony of Maj. Jas. W. Wilson, President and Chief Engineer, a recognized authority, and he clearly demonstrates that the French Broad line can be constructed much cheaper than we suggested yesterday. In his official report to Governor Vance, December 18, 1878. President Wilson said:

"The work of grading and construction down the French Broad to Warm Springs or Tennessee line, can be done with greater facility by a poorly equipped force than any other line ever located through a mountainous region, for the reason that the location is made along the side of precipitous bluffs, running parallel with the river, and the material dug or blasted out will have to be removed but a few feet."

Nor were we mistaken in our estimate of the importance of this thoroughfare of commerce to the States and cities of the Northwest and upper Mississippi Valley, and the North Atlantic States and seaports, for Mayor Wilson further says in the same report:—

"As the work approaches Asheville, public attention throughout the country is being attracted to this line, as forming an inevitable link, not only in the great lines connecting over Seaboard with Tennessee and the Mississippi Valley, but also in the projected and partially completed chain that will connect Charlotte and Savannah with Louisville and Cincinnati."

Now as to the propriety of the State looking well to this matter before she parts with the control of her property, and of being mindful into whose hands she falls, we are entirely borne out by Major Wilson in the same report as follows:—

"It may not, therefore, be inappropriate to invoke the influence of your Excellency to induce the General Assembly to retain for the State, exclusive control of this portion of our road, and listen to no proposals from the corporations to assist in its completion, and thereby acquire a partial control of it, or even the right of free transit for trains. I feel confident that under the sole ownership and management of the State, it will yield a profit sufficient to meet its mortgage bonds and preferred debt of the State, and at the same time furnish means to extend the main line to the Southwest (Ducktown).

Yet, we do not say that we are unconditionally opposed to a sale of the road to private corporations, but we are opposed to its sacrifice, and shall be opposed to parting with it on any terms to anybody who is not fully identified with the interest of the State in promoting and fostering the commerce of such trade centres as Salisbury, Charlotte, Raleigh, Goldsboro, and the ports of Wilmington, New Berne and Morehead City.

The consideration of having the road built is not sufficiently strong to induce us to consent that when built it may be turned against us, and used to repress our commercial energy and growth.

Nor shall we consent to its sale to any one, in or out, for or against the State, without something like adequate compensation. There is outstanding for the construction, of the old bonds of the State, reduced to the compromise basis of 40 cents in the dollar $1,300,000 new four per cent. bonds, which the State has to pay. Before the State resumed the construction of the road in 1875, it was proposed to surrender the old construction bonds for the property, and the State did not accept the offer. Since that time, one way and another, a half million of dollars have gone out of the State Treasury to carry the road across the Blue Ridge. That half million must be brought back, and a portion, at least, of the construction bonds returned for cancellation, or something equivalent thereto done, before we consent to the surrender of the road to parties who promise, as a consideration for it, to build it.

As to any guarantees about going to Ducktown, we would accept nothing, no promise or guarantee from any corporation in the world, short of a collateral security deposited with the State Treasurer, and of such character as he could convert it into enough cash to build the road. No company that will buy the Western North Carolina Railroad now, would, or could be made go to Ducktown, and there are those who would purchase it to keep it closed from Asheville to Paint Rock. We seriously distrust the whole proposition in this aspect of the case.

North Carolinians at Washington.

Col. Bonitz's Visit to Washington.

North Carolina has just cause to feel proud of her Senatorial and Congressional representation. Our only regret was that the 1st and 3d districts were so foolishly sacrificed in the last election. The names of Davis, Scales, Vance, Steele, Armfield and Kitchen, form a strong delegation of which no North Carolinian need be ashamed on visiting the National Capitol, while our two Senators—Ransom and Vance—stand the peer of the most prominent and intellectual on the Senate floor, worthy to be compared with the United States Senator of the palmy days, when to be a Senator was to be a man of note and of brains. North Carolina could not be better represented at Washington. Our Senators are leaders among leaders, and both enjoy the utmost esteem of the great men around them.

We were also pleased to find several of our North Carolina friends in the capitol. Col. Henry G. Williams, of Wilson, fills a responsible position in the House Document room, and fills it well. Our clever friend, Arthur Barnes, is with him. The genial Bob Furman, of the Asheville Citizen, is Clerk to Senator Ransom's Committee on Railroads, and makes a capital officer. Our esteemed friend, Col. E. R. Liles, of Anson, has a good place on the capitol police force and appears to be fully at home in his neat uniform. Last, but not lest, we found a most cordial greeting at the hands of one of Duplin's favorite and talented sons, Capt. John B. Hussey, who has recently been promoted to the office of House Librarian. They are all true and whole-souled North Carolinians, and will make every North Carolinian who visits the capitol feel fully at home.

Charles S. Prentice, of Toledo, O., went to Paris and thence to England to be treated for Bright's disease, and after the best physicians of both countries had done what they could for him, gave up in despair and returned to America to die. Here he received further treatment from other skillful physicians without benefit, and while "listlessly lingering in pain and anguish," he says, heard of the Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, took it, and was completely cured in a few weeks. He gives circumstantial details of his painful experience and astonishing cure, in a long letter to H. H. Warner & Co., which will be forwarded on application.

Knabe Pianos.

Mr. N. H. Bennett, agent for Wm. Knabe & Co., has another invoice of those celebrated pianos on the road. If you contemplate purchasing, wait and see them. They will be on exhibition at No. 20 Fayetteville St., about Saturday of this week. The best is the cheapest. It is poor policy to spend our money for cheap pianos without any reputation whatever.

Fresh Garden Seed.

Two Organs.

Regulate first the stomach, second the liver; especially the first, so as to perform their functions perfectly and you will receive at least nineteen twentieths of all the ills that mankind is heir to, in this or any other climate. Hop Bitters is the only thing that will give perfectly healthy natural action to these two organs.

Answer this.

Did you ever know any person to be ill, without inaction of the Stomach, Liver or kidneys, or did you ever know one who was well when either was obstructed or inactive; and did you ever know or hear of any case of the kind that Hop Bitters would not cure.—Ask your neighbor this same question.

A Down-town Merchant.

Having passed several sleepless nights, disturbed by the agonies and cries of a suffering child, and becoming convinced that Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup was just the article needed, procured a supply for the child. On reaching home and acquainting his wife with what he had done, she refused to have it administered to the child, as she was strongly in favor of Homeopathy. That night the child passed in suffering, and the parents without sleep. Returning home the day following, the father found the baby still worse; and while contemplating another sleepless night, the mother stepped from the room to attend to some domestic duties, and left the father with the child. During her absence he administered a portion of the Soothing Syrup to the baby, and said nothing. That night all hands slept well, and the little fellow awoke in the morning bright and happy. The mother was delighted with the sudden and wonderful change, and although at first offended at the deception practiced upon her, has continued to use the Syrup, and suffering crying babies and restless nights have disappeared. A single trial of the Syrup never yet failed to relieve the baby, and overcome the prejudices of the mother. Sold by all Druggists at 25 cents a bottle.

$6. "THE SUN." $6.

PUBLISHED AT BALTIMORE, MD.,

1880. DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY. 1880.

A Paper for all classes of the People and in every Department of life.

Independent and Conservative.

THE SUN is conservative in politics, independent in tone and non-sectarian. Its proprietors point to the principles that have governed it in the past as a guarantee of its course in the future. On all subjects of public interest it will continue to express its opinions, according to its best judgment, with a view only to the promotion of the best interests of the public. All the freshest news, at home and abroad, excluding only that which is prurient or sensational, is given from day to day in its columns. In addition to what is furnished by the Associated Press and by the local reporters of The Sun, no expense is spared to keep its special correspondence, that from Europe as well as from the Pacific Coast, and from its Washington Bureau abreast of the times, and to supplement it, as occasion may require, at every other point to which the current of events give prominence.

The Financial and Commercial Reports of The Sun contain at all times full and trustworthy accounts of all movements and operations in the leading markets, as well as that of Baltimore, with special telegraph service from New York of the latest stock and other transactions; while its reports of the ruling prices of breadstuffs, provisions, and other leading articles of trade and commerce, will embrace the latest intelligence, both at home and abroad, of each day's doings, up to the hour of going to press.

As a Paper for the People, filled with the freshest and most varied news, The Sun has acquired a reputation which is not surpassed by any of its contemporaries, while its large circulation, not only locally, but in many of the States of the Union, makes it the most valuable medium for all classes of advertisers.

KNOW THYSELF

THE untold miseries that result from indiscretion in early life may be alleviated and cured. Those who doubt this assertion should purchase the new medical work published by the PEABODY MEDICAL INSTITUTE, Boston, entitled SCIENCE OF LIFE; or SELF-PRESERVATION. Exhausted vitality, nervous and physical debility, or vitality impaired by the errors of youth or too close application to business, may be restored and manhood regained.

Two hundredth edition, revised and enlarged, just published. It is a standard medical work, the best in the English language, written by a physician of great experience, to whom was awarded a gold and jeweiled medal by the National Medical Association. It contains beautiful and very expensive engravings. Three hundred pages, more than 50 valuable prescriptions for all forms of prevailing disease, the result of many years of extensive and successful practice, either one of which is worth ten times the price of the book. Bound in French cloth; price only $1, sent by mail post-paid.

The London Lancet says: "No person should be without this valuable book. The author is a noble benefactor."

An illustrated sample sent to all on receipt of 6 cents for postage.

The author refers, by permission, to Jos. S. Fisher, president; W. L. P. Ingraham, vice-president; W. Paine M. D.; C. S. Gaunitt, M. D.; H. J. Doucet, M. D.; R. L. Kline, M. D.; J. R. Holcomb, M. BLOOD AND SKIN HUMORS,

The Scourge of Mankind: Old Methods of Treatment and Remedies a Failure.

CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the Great Blood Purifier and Liver Stimulant, is the most searching, cleansing, and purifying agent of this country. It may be detected in the saliva, sweat, milk, blood, and urine in forty minutes after taking the first dose, showing that it has entered the circulation and been carried to every part of the system. It forces out of the blood the virus of Syphilis, Scrofula, Cancer, and Cankers, those terrible blood poisons that rot out the machinery of life filling the body with foul corruptions. Taken internally in conjunction with the external application of CUTICURA, the great Skin Cure, it speedily cures Scrofulous Ulcers and Old Sores, Salt Rheum, Psoriasis, Tetter, Ringworm, Scald Head, Dandruff, and all Itching and Scaly Diseases of the Skin and Scalp.

ECZEMA ON THE SCALP.

BREAST AND LIMBS CURED.

Messrs WEEKS & POTTER: Gnslemen—I cannot refrain from adding my debt of gratitude to you for having placed within my reach the wonderful CUTICURA REMEDIES, which have rendered unnecessary all further experiment of physicians, and in a remarkably short space of time have rid me of a loathsome disease. I dispensed with all physicians two years ago believing they did me no good. The CUTICURA has stopped this unsatisfactory expense—even if it were necessary and I had the courage any longer to follow their advice—and brought the long-looked-for cure and happiness.

I have been afflicted with Eczema or Salt Rheum on my scalp, breast, and limbs for five years, during which time I have been under the treatment of physicians, or at mineral springs, or taking some kind of medicine. I have been treated by Drs —— of ——, Dr. —— of ——, and visited sulphur springs and taken numbers of patent medicines, all without the faintest approach to a cure.

April 1st last, I began the use of CUTICURA, which was immediately successful in my case, entirely curing me. I have not had a clean scalp for 15 years until the use of CUTICURA entirely healed it and left it clean and healthy. The other parts of my body were afflicted in a more aggravated form, out are now completely healed. I believe myself completely cured. I shall continue the CUTICURA RESOLVENT as directed, for its wonderful action on the stomach and bowels and cooling influence on the blood. It will afford me pleasure, as I have done in many cases, to urge the afflicted to use these wonderful remedies.

Yours, etc.,
STEPHEN CROWELL.
NEW BEDFORD, Sept. 30, 1878.

A RUNNING SORE

CURED IN ONE WEEK.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER:—Some three or four weeks ago I ordered a box of CUTICURA for a bad case of Salt Rheum. The back of one of my wife's hands was a running sore. In one week from the day it arrived her hand was well and has remained so up to to-day. E. P. DAGGETT.
MILFORD, ME., June 10, 1878.

NOTE.—Reader, don't you think these cures remarkable?

CUTICURA SOAP,

MEDICINAL AND TOILET,

is prepared from CUTICURA in a modified form, and is positively indispensable in the treatment of Skin and Scalp Diseases. We recommend it for the preservation of the skins of infants, for gentlemen who shave and are troubled with tender faces, for those who desire a clean and wholesome Skin and Scalp, and for all purposes of the toilet, bath and nursery. Its delightful and refreshing fragrance equals or surpasses the finest Parisian Soaps.

The CUTICURA REMEDIES are prepared by WEEKS & POTTER, Chemists and Druggists, 360 Washington street, Boston, and are for sale by all Druggists. Price of CUTICURA, small boxes, 50 cents; large boxes, $1. RESOLVENT, $1 per bottle. CUTICURA SOAP, 25 cents per cake; by mail, 30 cents; three cakes, 75 cents.

TUTT'S PILLS

SYMPTOMS OF A

TORPID LIVER.

Loss of Appetite, Bowels costive, Pain in the Head, with a dull sensation in the back part, Pain under the shoulderblade, fullness after eating, with a disinclination to exertion of body or mind, Irritability of temper, Low spirits, with a feeling of having neglected some duty, Weariness, Dizziness, Fluttering at the Heart, Dots before the eyes, Yellow Skin, Headache generally over the right eye, Restlessness with fitful dreams, highly colored Urine.

IF THESE WARNINGS ARE UNHEEDED, SERIOUS DISEASES WILL SOON BE DEVELOPED.

TUTT'S PILLS are especially adapted to such cases, one dose effects such a change of feeling as to astonish the sufferer.

CONSTIPATION.

Only with regularity of the bowels can perfect health be enjoyed. If the constipation is of recent date, a single dose of TUTT'S PILLS will suffice, but if it has become habitual, one pill should be taken every night, gradually lessening the frequency of the dose until a regular daily movement is obtained, which will soon follow.

Dr. I. Guy Lewis, Fulton, Ark., says:
"After a practice of 25 years, I pronounce TUTT'S PILLS the best anti-bilious medicine ever made."

Rev. F. R. Osgood, New York, says:
"I have had Dyspepsia, Weak Stomach and Nervousness. I never had any medicine to do me so much good as TUTT'S PILLS. They are as good as represented."

Office 35 Murray Street, New York.

Meeting of the Board of Directors of the Western N. C. Railroad.

Pursuant to a call of the Governor, the Board of Directors of the Western North Carolina Railroad met in this city yesterday to discuss the proposition of Mr W. J. Best, and associates, to purchase the Western North Carolina Railroad. The meeting was held in the Treasurer's private office, and lasted throughout the day, and until 10:30 o'clock last night. The following members of the Directory were present: Messrs. J. W. Wilson, President, who presided over the meeting, Col. W. T. Dortch, Col. V. V. Richardson, T. D. Bryson, Esq., R. H. Battle, Jr., Esq., Col. J. I. Scales, Col. W. P. Roberts, T. F. Davidson, Esq., A. M. Erwin, Esq.; also Col. W. L. Johnson, Treasurer Worth, Auditor Love, Hon. C. M. Cook, Dr. Powell and Mr. S. Brown.

The proposition briefly stated proposes to protect the $850,000 of mortgage bonds now out; to issue to the State $550,000 of first mortgage bonds in judgment for the amount experded by the State since the sale of the road, for the support of convicts. Will deposit with the Treasurer $30,000 to defray the expenses of the legislature, should he, Best, not give a guarantee for the fulfillment of the contract, this $30,000 to become a perpetual deposit to meet the interest on the bonds now out. Best to put a mortgage on the road, not to exceed $15,000 per mile, interest not to be due until the line to Paint Rock is completed. The amount expended on this line not to exceed $850,000 and this amount to remain unrouched until the entire line is completed to Ducktown; to complete the Paint Rock line by July, 1881, and Ducktown by July, 1885.

The discussion was earnest and participated in at length by Colonels Davidson, Wilson, Henderson and Dr. Worth, who favored the proposition, and by Colonels Dortch, Johnson and Richardson, who opposed it.

A resolution recommending the Governor to decline to convene the Legislature was offered; but a substitute by Colonel Henderson, recommending that the Legislature be called, and the proposition be accepted, was offered and lost by a vote of 6 to 5, pending which Mr. Battle offered a resolution to adjourn till this morning at 10 o'clock, in order that the Board might have more time to consider the proposition in detail. A vote was taken and stood 5 to 5, President Wilson casting the vote of the Chair in favor of the motion, whereupon the meeting was adjourned until this morning at 10 o'clock.

Supreme Court.

Court opened at 10 o'clock yesterday morning All the justices were present.

The consideration of appeals from the Fifth Judicial District was resumed, and causes were disposed of as follows:

Julia A Coble et als, vs. David Coble, administrator, from Guilford; argued by Thomas Ruffin for the plaintiffs, and Scott & Caldwell for the defendants.

North Carolina Railroad Company et als, vs. Board of Commissioners of Alamance; argued by James E Boyd, D G Fowle and Ruffin & Graham for the plaintiffs, and Scott & Caldwell and E S Parker for the defendants.

Pending the argument in the above cause, the court adjourned until 10 o'clock this (Wednesday) morning, when the argumont in the same cause will be resumed.

Superior Court.

Court met yesterday at ten o'clock, Judge Gudger presiding. The following cases were called and disposed of:

State vs. I J Meadows, A and B, defendant, plead guilty. Discharged on payment of costs.

State vs. Herndon, concealed weapons; jury trial, verdict; not guilty.

State vs. C C Jewell, retailing liquor without license. Defendant plead guilty. Judgment suspended on payment of costs.

State vs. Allison Spikes, A and B; jury trial, verdict; not guilty.

State vs. Atlas Cole and Rhodina Jones, F and A; not pros.

State vs. Nancy Todd and Thomas Wiley, F and A; jury trial, verdict; guilty. Judgment; twelve months in the county jail, defendants to give bond in the sum of $500, pending appeal; could not give bond and were jailed.

State vs. Mattie Hester, trespass; not pros, with leave. No witness to prove at this term.

State vs. David Crockett, assault with deadly weapon; defendant plead guilty; judgment suspended on payment of cost.

State vs. Nat. Jolly, failing to take out license; defendant submits; judgment suspended on payment of costs.

State and Malvina Groran vs. Alfred Groran, peace warrant; submission; judgment suspended on payment of cost. Appeal.

State vs. Henry Austin, larceny and receiving; jury trial; verdict—not guilty; judgment—three years in the penitentiary.

State vs. Robert B. and H. R. Horton, affray; jury trial; verdict—guilty. Judgment reversed.

Sporting Goods.

Guns and Pistols of various Patterns and Gun Material of every description. We have the largest and best assortment of Goods in this line in the state.

THE NEW FRYER.

This useful invention meets a long felt need for a more convenient method of removing Oysters, Potatoes, and other fried food, with greater quickness, and all at once, from the boiling fat in which they have been cooked, and allowing the fat to drain from them while they remain over the fire; thereby getting rid more certainly of the su erfluous grease, the objection so often made of the unhealthiness of food cooked in the ordinary frying-pan is done away with.

By detaching the supporter, you have for omelettes and other things for which a drainer is not required, a deeper and better quality of frying-pan than has heretofore been made.

THE OVAL CAKE

is the most economical form of Washing Soap. All bar or square cakes wear down in use to a large flat piece, too thin to handle and, therefore, wasted; while the OVAL CAKE of

can be cut in two, the oval end clasped readily in the hand, and the larger end worn down almost to a wafer without any waste. COLGATE & CO. recommend their (Trade-Mark Registered) to Careful Housekeepers, not only as superior in quality, but as in form the most economical Soap now made.
